Ludwig Wittgenstein with his school class in Lower Austria, 1922-24.

The new International Ludwig Wittgenstein Institute (ILWI), founded by the ALWS, is conceptualised as an interdisciplinary platform for scientific and cultural projects related to the tradition and succession of Wittgenstein's philosophy. The institute's programme includes regular workshops, summer schools, Wittgenstein lectures and the opportunity for long-term research in Kirchberg for academics and students. ILWI aims at establishing a permanent address for intensive work and exchange for philosophers and scientists all over the world.
